Chancellor's Cabinet January 27, 2020

Bond Issue Update—Initial polling from late Sept is good. Informational materials are being sent out to community. The Campaign has been doing fundraising and will send a mailer. Encouragement to share information to those we know. Sacramento Bee officially endorsed Measure E, and many other endorsements. No significant opposition to the bond. Two websites are available about the bond. Yesone.vote Election on March 3rd.

ARC Presidential Search—Forum at ARC. Good showing of employees. Lots of input captured. J. Knapp provided a written summary of the discussion. Position posting will go out soon. King is recruiting candidates.

College Futures Grant—Permission to 'not be perfect' from the funder. They want to be a good partner and bring change and improvement to the colleges. College Futures interested in collaboration regionally. ASU is very innovative regarding the 'disruptions' for students. ASU is one of ten institutions nationally advancing equity work. [Odessa, Houston, Portland, Valencia-noted as other innovative colleges]

Future Agenda Items—send to J. Delucchi or B. King for next meeting

Online Meeting with College President and DAS Leadership Jan 27, 2020

Shared Principles—

- College driven, recognize college interdependency
- Equity centered
- district supports and services
- highly engaged faculty involvement
- collaboration not competition
- comprehensive support services
- understand there are students that we may not currently be serving
- data informed decisions
- accessibility
- need common agreement on definitions
- identification of fully online programs

Next Meeting-Monday February 3rd noon at ARC.
