

Los Rios Community College District

American River College - Cosumnes River College - Folsom Lake College - Sacramento City College

Release Agreement

THIS IS A RELEASE OF LIABILITY. READ IT CAREFULLY AND SIGN BELOW.

- You are encouraged to contact a trained professional mechanic/locksmith.
- Jumpstarting may damage the electrical system of the vehicle. This may include, but not limited to, the starter, battery, computer(s), and radio.
- Unlocking with tools may damage the internal working of the door and may make the door inoperable and may damage the paint and/or trim. In rare occasions, the window may break.

In consideration for the staff of the Los Rios Community College District providing me these free services for my car, I hereby voluntarily assume all risks associated with this activity, including any risk of injury or damage arising from that activity. I hereby release the District, its governing board and the members thereof, its colleges, its officers, agents, employees and volunteers, and each of them from all liability for injuries (including death), and damages arising out of or in any way related to this service. I also agree to defend, indemnify, and hold the District, its governing board and the members thereof, its colleges, its officers, agents, employees and volunteers, and each of them harmless from all liability for injuries (including death), and damages arising out of or in any way related to this service. This release and indemnity obligation extend to conduct which is negligent or reckless, but do not extend to any intentional or criminal misconduct.
