

1.0 Reasonable Accommodations and the Interactive Process

- 1.1 To comply with the applicable laws ensuring equal educational opportunities to qualified individuals with disabilities, the Los Rios Community College District/Colleges will make reasonable accommodations for the known physical and mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or student unless undue hardship would result. As part of this process, the District/College will engage in a timely and good faith interactive process with the student concerning this subject.
- 1.2 Any applicant for enrollment or any student who requires an accommodation in order to participate in the application process or the education opportunities of the District/Colleges should contact the College Disabled Student Programs and Services Department or the District/College Equity Officer, or a College Vice President's office to request accommodation.
- 1.3 Any individual with a disability should specify what life activities and educational opportunities are limited by their disability when requesting an accommodation. Medical certification regarding the disability may be required.
- 1.4 The District/College Equity Officer will make the final determination as to any accommodation that will be provided.
